

TESTIMONIALS

"The Personal Chef you helped us hire last year has been an amazing addition to our household. Your expertise was so helpful and after doing so much hiring on my own I now see how invaluable your services are. The situation has worked out so well and the Personal Chef intends to stay for years to come. I recommend you to anyone who asks how we have done household hiring."

".....when I first met Teresa I was introduced to her by my dear friend who happens to be my attorney, he said "she is a solver and you have to meet her" I had no earthly idea what a 'solver' was but we did this little dance she likes to do with lunch and we chatted for over three hours about this and that I can say she is a genuine listener and has remarkable insight into ones' little nagging problems and so began our business relationship cleaning up some dreadful household staffing and contractor issues. I'd dare say that I had let them lay there too long I had no idea someone like this still existed, when I think I know it all she teaches me something new. She is kind and we like her very much which says a lot these days. "
